API (Finhub) Application Project: B-8

- Found API called Finnhub that i think would be a good choice
- Claims:
    - Basic = B-NUM
    - Intermediate = I-NUM
    - Stretch = S-NUM
- Allow users to see all stocks owned in one place
    - Add (“buy”) stocks in a variety of options
        - Include price bought at
        - Stock/company name
        - Stock/company “symbol”
        - Shares purchased
        - Etc
    - Remove (remove OR “sell”) stocks
        - “Sell”
            - Include price sold at
            - Shares sold
            - Etc
        - Removal
            - Deletes stock from users portfolio
- Searchable stocks: I-15
    - User can search for stocks and see the stock data
- Watchlist: I-23
    - User can add stocks to their watchlist to easily see their favorite stocks
    - Display:
        - Current price
        - Daily change (value and percentage)
        - Chart for visualizing the stock(s) over time
    - Show highest gaining stocks:
        - User easily has access to the highest gaining stocks over the period selected
- Dashboard/Portfolio view: I-26
    - Allows users to easily view the stocks that they are currently holding
- Charts: S-30
    - Displays:
        - Price over time
        - Volume
        - Moving averages
        - 1D/1W/1M/1Y/… price history: I-19
        - Candlestick charts
- Real-time stock updates:
    - Automatically update stock informations (prices, percentages) in real-time
- Smart search and autocomplete:
    - Auto complete user input when applicable

    - If user inputs invalid symbol/company then show a screen explanation: I-16
    - Allow filtering on search if input has multiple matches
- Stock comparisons:
    - Allows users to compare stocks/graphs side by side: I-17 AND I-19
- Dark mode/Themes/Settings: I-21
    - Allow users to change settings such as Dark mode, Chart colors, Display style, etc
    - Saved through local storage
- Export stock data: I-24
    - Allow users to download their watchlist, search results, portfolio, etc
    - Could provide multiple options of downloading (ex. JSON, CSV, etc)
- Different stock views: I-19
    - Allow toggling of views such as Grid view, list view, Card view, etc
- Make animations appealing and smooth: I-18
- Loading/spinner during API calls: I-14
- Add mini chart below stock price displaying the price over the last x-hours

Suggested claims:

- Intermediate Claims:
    - I-14: Loading indicator on API calls
    - I-15: User can search for and filter stock data
    - I-17: User can sort the stocks/data by different chosen criteria(s)
    - I-18: On different states (IE. hover, click, etc) implement smooth and appealing animations/transitions
    - I-19: User can toggle between different views without page reloading
    - I-21: User can change setting which persist across site with local storage
    - I23: User can have a Favorites/Watchlist for their stocks
    - I-26: User has a main dashboard which displays their current holdings
- Stretch claims:
    - S-30: User can view stocks in a chart and compare stocks using charts
    - S-31: User sees realtime updates of stock prices/percentages

Name Suggestions:

- StockWatch
- Tradar
- Tickr
- Finlytics
- TOP CHOICE: Tradar or Tickr